Morning Worship with the “Hear and Now” Folk Group

“The ‘Hear and Now’ folk group is a group of young people who meet for the enjoyment of singing, and whose purpose is to share that joy and happiness with other people through singing for them.” They now present:

“MUSIC TO THINK ABOUT”

I believe in Music
Get Together
This New Land
Day by Day
Put a Little Love
I Don't Know how to Love Him
Strangest Dream
Put Your Hand in the Hand
A Gift of Song—(Announcements and Offertory)
Song of Freedom
Soulaimon
Teach your Children
As Tears go by
Holly Holy
One Tin Soldier
Pass it On

Greeting the congregation this morning is Ann Hope.

Ushers on duty are John Petrie, Barbara Fraser, Heather McPhee, Beth Heckman, Bela Joos, Geza Joos and Ricky Husolo.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome the “Hear and Now” folk group who are conducting our service this morning. A reception will be held following the service in the church hall.

Special envelopes will be found in the pews for anyone who would care to use them for this Group.

Announcements

Our warmest welcome is extended to our friends from St. Lambert, the Hear and Now singers. This group is with us this morning to help us get our Church School activities off to a good start, and we thank them very much for being with us this Rally Day. After the morning worship, through the kindness of the Friendly Folk, the congregation is invited to Wyman Hall where lunch will be served, and where we can all continue to enjoy the company and the music of the Hear and Now.

You will realize that with a group of this size coming to us from St. Lambert, certain transportation expenses are involved. We invite you to share in these costs by using the Hear and Now envelopes in the pews.

Next Sunday, October 7th, the Sacrament of Communion is to be included with the morning and evening worship.

Sunday, October 14th, is Harvest Thanksgiving and Dedication Sunday. Morning Worship will be a special musical service given by our choirs. During the Worship, the Orchin Memorial Piano will be dedicated. Mrs. Charles (Phyllis) Hutchins will play with Mrs. Angier, at this service, a Piano-Organ Duet.

At the Evening Worship on the 14th, at Cote St. Charles, a hymn board will be dedicated in memory of Joe Orchin. The hymn board is a gift of the Cote congregation. After Worship, the "Cote" ladies will entertain at coffee.

Friendly Folk will meet on Tuesday, October 2nd at Blanche Hodgson's at 8:15 p.m.

The women of the congregation are reminded of the U.C.W. meeting, at which Life Memberships will be presented to Charlotte Davis, Milly Gray and Dot Lane. This will be at Wyman Hall, Wednesday, October 3rd at 2 p.m. EVERYONE is invited.

The BAZAAR has been set for November 10th. The committee will be looking for donations of potted plants, home baked goods. Please keep this in mind.
