

SUNDAY — NOVEMBER 19, 1972

Morning Worship with the “Hear and Now” Folk Group

“The ‘Hear and Now’ folk group is a group of young people who meet for the enjoyment of singing, and whose purpose is to share that joy and happiness with other people through singing for them.” They now present:

“MUSIC TO THINK ABOUT”

Put a Little Love in Your Heart
Woke Up This Morning
The Strangest Dream
The Giving Song
Desiderata
Sing a Simple Son of Freedom
Put Your Hand in the Hand
A Gift of Song — Announcements and Offertory
Love One Another
God Gives His People Strength
Soolaimon
I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing
The Gates of Love
As Tears Go By Pass It On
I Believe in Music.

Greeting the congregation this morning are: Mr. R. G. Johnston and Mr. A. R. Murray.

Ushers on duty are Mr. J. B. Dykes, Miss Lorna Clark, Miss Nancy Dobson, Miss Linda Dornan, Mr. Brett Isaac, Mr. Bob Mowat, Mr. Ian Murray.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome the “Hear and Now” folk group, who are conducting our service this morning.

There will be special envelopes in the church pews for anyone who would care to use them for this group.
