MORNING WORSHIP, 10:00 A.M.

The Worship Service will be presented this morning by the HERE and NOW Singers. The message will be presented in dialogue form in the context of the service by the Rev. Emrys Jenkins and the members of the group.

The offering will be received while the group singers present "The Giving Song". Members of the congregation are invited to make use of Special Envelopes provided for contributions to the singing ministry of the HERE and NOW Folk Singers, who have so kindly consented to share with us in this new and vibrant form of Christian worship.

On behalf of the congregation your Minister wishes to express appreciation to the Rev. E. M. Jenkins, Mr. Bob Mitchell, director, and members of the choir, who have so graciously shared their talent with us.
